Dear Potential Recruiter ,

I am writing to express my interest in the available position at your company. I am currently pursuing a degree in Web Design and Development with a minor in IT at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. Through my coursework and personal projects, I have developed a strong foundation in web design, development, and user experience, which I am eager to apply in a professional setting.

In addition to my academic background, my work experience at Target has honed my skills in teamwork, problem-solving, and customer service. I am adept at managing my time, collaborating with others, and tackling challenges efficiently—skills I believe will make me a valuable asset to your team.

I am excited about the possibility of contributing my skills and enthusiasm to help achieve your goals. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss how I can contribute to your team.

Sincerely,

Katie Castro
